1.0 Purpose

The method of disposal used on particular textbooks or other assets should result in the best overall benefit to Wasatch Waldorf Charter School and will follow the procedure for disposal of obsolete or damaged textbooks.

2.0 Definition

3.0 Policy Content

Wasatch Waldorf Charter School staff are not permitted to dispose of school property, except as authorized in accordance with this policy.

Wasatch Waldorf Charter School staff should provide the Executive Director with a complete written description of any textbooks considered obsolete. Textbooks are to be held at the location until further notice.

Should Wasatch Charter School have surplus books, the Executive Director or designee shall:

1. Provide notification to other charter schools of available textbooks and timelines for disposal of textbooks by email or other communication, and then

2. If applicable, negotiate the exchange of the textbooks with other charter school or LEA leaders for other books.

If there is not interest from other schools, then the Director or designee shall dispose of the textbooks. Methods of disposal must be approved by the Executive Director and will be done consistent with Utah Administrative Rules R277-433. The approved methods of disposal include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Donate to a non-profit organization or relief fund at no cost to the school
- Return to the supplier for trade-in or credit
- Sell by public auction
- Sell to a used book dealer
